

THE SENSUAL VOYAGE, SAINT VALENTINE'S WEEKEND

Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th February 2009

Silver Sturgeon, Savoy Pier, Victoria Embankment, London WC2

As Saint Valentine's Day 2009 is a Saturday, the stylish Silver Fleet have created a decadent feast for all the senses, The Sensual Voyage, with Veuve Clicquot Champagne and Mayfair perfumer Miller Harris onboard their ultra luxe 61 metre river yacht.

Indulge your beloved from the moment you step onboard, via the private Savoy Pier, with a Veuve Clicquot Rosé Champagne reception followed by a three course menu designed by A-list caterers "rhubarb". Only fifty tables will be available for the cruise with either Arne Jacobson 'Grand Prix' chairs or butter-soft leather booth seats with tables strewn with rose petals, scented by Miller Harris candles and a perfect orchid tied with Swarovski crystal.

The event menu includes Cep and Jerusalem Artichoke Soup with Truffle shavings, Roast Saddle of Lamb with Rosemary and Garlic, and a Knickerbocker Glory, followed by handmade Veuve Clicquot Chocolate Truffles, Fairtrade and organic filter coffee or Miller Harris Fragrant Teas.

Your sensory experience onboard will be beautifully enhanced by London perfumer, Lyn Harris of Miller Harris, with her precious, pure 'Noix de Tubereuse' and 'Citron Citron' Fragrant Candles, The Bergamot/ The Petales/ The Fume after dinner teas and Miller Harris Ladies Powder Room, together with in-house florist Toby B. Roberts and a team of talented "rhubarb" chefs.

Throughout your cruise one of London's most creative lounge DJs, Audio Sushi, will mix an evocative and magical theme to accompany the views of the city's riverscape.

A historic family-run company, the Silver Fleet have been privately chartering their river yachts to film stars, prime ministers and royalty for over 60 years. Guests onboard include Brigitte Bardot, Michael Caine, Princes Charles, William and Harry, Keira Knightley and Stella McCartney.
